

Position Opening: Special Education Co-Teacher

Fryeburg Academy, a 575-student day and boarding high school in Western Maine and the Mount Washington Valley, seeks an innovative Special Education teacher beginning September 2019. This full-time co-teaching position involves meeting the academic and social/emotional needs for a caseload of identified special education students as a member of each student's wrap around team. The candidate will be highly organized, possess excellent interpersonal skills, and demonstrate the ability to provide effective, specialized instruction.

Preference will be given to candidates with teaching experience and developed, varied strategies for supporting students with emotional/behavioral challenges. Fryeburg faculty have significant responsibilities connected with the school's boarding program and extracurricular offerings. The Academy is therefore looking for individuals who enjoy working with high school students both in and out of the classroom and who wish, through commitment to a variety of roles, to strengthen its community. Experience working with students outside of the classroom- tutoring, coaching, in a residential or camp setting, or as an activity advisor- is a plus.

Knowledge, Skills, Dispositions:

- A strong belief in independent education, and particularly the mission of Fryeburg Academy
- Ability to establish positive, supportive relationships with students, parents, and colleagues
- Ability to write quality IEPs in a timely manner, including data-driven, observable, and measurable goals
- Skill in planning and delivering differentiated instruction and assessment to meet students' IEP goals
- Ability to work with, encourage, and inspire students to seek continuous growth
- Demonstrated proactive skills in communication and problem-solving
- Detail orientation and developed organizational habits
- Excellent communications skills, both oral and written
- Ability to work both independently and collaboratively while maintaining high professional standards
- A willingness to work with students of all backgrounds and abilities
- A desire to work with students both in and out of the classroom. In particular, a willingness to serve as an academic advisor for a group of 10-12 students for their four years of high school.

Qualifying Education and Experience:

- Bachelor's degree; MDOE 282 certification or eligibility for Maine certification; if not certified in Maine

Interested candidates should submit an application, letter of interest, résumé, college transcripts, and three references to Judy Heinger, Executive Assistant to the Head of School (jheinger@fryeburgacademy.org).
